

31st name Jennifer Simmons

Date 5/9/2011

Scan

Arthur Miller Listening and Viewing

Segment 1: Meet Arthur Miller

- What are the titles of Arthur Miller's most famous plays?
- How do you think growing up during the Depression influenced Arthur Miller's writing?

- Death of a Salesman. - The Crucible.

• I think it influenced him because he seen a lot and he was around all that action so he made his past life into a stor

Segment 2: The Crucible

- How is Senator Joseph McCarthy historically significant?
- How does The Crucible reflect what was going on in America in the 1950s?

- He lead the hunt for Suspected Communist

- was based off of something that was really going on in America in the 1950's.

Segment 3: The Writing Process

- According to Arthur Miller, why is theater a "changeable art"?
- Why do you think dramas written long ago are still relevant today?

- responds to the moment of history like a news-paper. Does.

• it is relavent to everyone even now days so its makes it new again.

Segment 4: The Rewards of Writing

- How does Arthur Miller's writing reflect his political concerns?
- What do you think is Arthur Miller's greatest contribution to American society and literature?

- He writes the political concerns into his plays.

- Justice -

• highlighting need for

- Understood regular persons suffering.